

Coordination of National/Regional Network of Health Promoting Hospitals and Health Services

Mission of HPH

The Health Promoting Hospitals and Health Services of the International Network shall work towards incorporating the concepts, values, strategies and standards or indicators of health promotion into the organisational structure and culture of the hospital/health service. The goal is better health gain by improving the quality of health care, the relationship between hospitals/health services, the community and the environment, and the conditions for and satisfaction of patients, relatives and staff.

The International Network of Health Promoting Hospitals and Health Services, hereafter referred to as the International HPH Network, follows the principles of WHO regarding health promotion as written down in the Ottawa Charter (1986), the Budapest Declaration (1991), the Vienna Recommendations (1997), the Bangkok Charter (2006) and the Standards for Health Promotion in Hospitals (2004). The International HPH Network will collaborate with international organisations such as the European Commission and WHO to support the implementation of health promotion strategies, e.g. Patient Safety (2004) and Prevention and Control of Non-communicable Diseases in the WHO European Region (2006).

Purpose of HPH

The International HPH Network shall promote and assist in the dissemination of the concept of health promotion in hospitals and health services (as defined in the mission above) and support implementation within countries and regions, internationally, through technical support to members and the initiation of new national/regional networks.

The objectives of the International HPH Network

- Provide leadership on matters critical to health promotion in hospitals and health services and engage in a partnership where joint action is needed
- Shape the research agenda and stimulate the generation, translation and dissemination of valuable knowledge
- Set norms and standards and promote and monitor their implementation
- Articulate ethical and evidence-based policy options
- Provide technical support, catalyse change and build sustainable institutional capacity
- Monitor the development of health promotion in hospitals and health services

Management of the Network

The National/Regional HPH Network will be the coordinating institution of HPH in the specific country/region. It will be the focal point between the individual members and the International HPH Secretariat.

Mission and obligations of the corporate member

The National/Regional HPH Network, which supports the mission and purpose of HPH, shall be eligible for corporate membership, thus constituting the corporate members of the HPH network. This network shall represent at least three hospitals or health services.

The tasks of a National/Regional HPH Network are:

- to put the mission, purpose and objectives of WHO health promotion principles described above into practice on the national/regional level by supporting strategic thinking and planning, implementation of health promotion, development of communication systems and training and education.
- to develop a strategy and action plan for implementation.
- Designate a Coordinating Institution and assign a Coordinator.
- To recruit and approve new member hospitals and health services for the National/Regional HPH Network and notify the International HPH Secretariat.
- to collect the membership fee from all their members as defined by the General Assembly and to pay the total amount to the International HPH Secretariat according to the established deadlines.
- to periodically deliver a progress report to the Governance Board.
- to have the rules and functioning of the National/Regional HPH Network approved by their constituent members.
- The National/Regional HPH Network commits to embrace and promote the fundamental principles of human rights as set forth by the United Nations, recognising the inherent dignity and equal rights of all individuals and pledges to integrate these principles into their endeavours, fostering a culture of respect, inclusivity and justice.

Membership of the International HPH Network shall be subject to the approval of the Governance Board.

- the Coordinating Institution and the International HPH Secretariat shall sign an agreement for four years.
- National/Regional HPH Networks shall have the right to vote in the General Assembly. The coordinator or another person authorised by the National/Regional HPH Network will exercise this right. One vote per National/Regional HPH Network.

Duration

A National / Regional HPH Network, not in arrears with its fees, may withdraw its membership from the International HPH Network by written notice to the Governance Board by 31 December and twelve months before withdrawal. Any National/Regional HPH Network withdrawing its membership shall receive a formal acknowledgement from the Governance Board. The National/Regional HPH Network shall relinquish all rights and responsibilities of membership at the end of the twelve months following notice of withdrawal.

In case of missing payments, the corporate members will get two warnings – 1 per calendar year. The 2nd warning is followed by exclusion from voting in the General Assembly. If non-payment continues, the member will be excluded from the International HPH Network at the termination of the agreement.
